

Unité 12 – Jeux de classe

Moi, j'achète...

Focus: This memory game is to practise items of vocabulary of things that can be bought.

Preparation: Students might need to practise saying aloud a list of things to buy before beginning the game. New items can also be added to the objects below.

Jeu :

The first student begins by saying Moi, j'achète un sac à dos. The next student repeats this and adds on something else, e.g. Moi, j'achète un sac à dos et un jogging. Each player must remember all the items on the list and add something new. The items can be anything at all that is able to be bought. This is more of a memory game than a competitive game.
